

ANTHONY REDGRAVE

Anthony@redgraveresearch.com | redgraveresearch.com | FG4LE.com | transdoetaskforce.org

EDUCATION

University of New England Ed.D. in Transformative Leadership in Education Dissertation: Stakeholders affected by the use of forensic genealogical human identification technology	2019-2021 (projected)
Full Sail University MS in Instructional Design and Technology Area of focus: game-based instructional design for adult learners	2018-2019
Full Sail University BFA in Creative Writing for Entertainment Area of focus: educational game writing	2014-2017

AWARDS

Certificate of Appreciation, United States Marshalls Service	July 2018
Course Director's Award, Psychology of Play	February 2017
Scholarship recipient, Invisible No More	April 2014

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Redgrave Research Forensic Services LLC Co-founder, Lead Forensic Genetic Genealogist Provision of forensic services including forensic genetic genealogy, facial approximations, photo analysis, training and education. Collaboration with law enforcement agencies and forensics professionals in the identification of unidentified decedents and perpetrators of violent crimes.	2013-Present
Forensic Genealogy Training for Law Enforcement Co-founder, Lead Instructor, Instructional Designer Education and training in forensic genetic genealogy for law enforcement professionals, forensic scientists, legal professionals, and genealogists. Lead instructor of in-depth internship program in which participants gain case experience by supervised work on active investigations.	2018-Present
Trans Doe Task Force Co-founder Identifying unidentified decedents who may have been transgender or gender-variant in life, as well as addressing current shortcomings in forensic science and law enforcement investigations that are counterproductive to the needs of LGBTQ+ victims.	2018-Present
DNA Doe Project Training Coordinator designed, implemented, and facilitated trainings for forensic genealogy for law enforcement agencies. Also facilitated DDP volunteer trainings and enrichments to improve skills and methodologies.	2018-2019
Team Lead Organization of group research, communication with law enforcement agencies, compilation of findings reports, information security, media interaction.	2018-2019
Forensic Genetic Genealogist Assisted with the identification of unidentified John and Jane Does using DNA and forensic genealogy. Was also a Team Lead and Case Manager.	2018-2019

LECTURES AND PRESENTATIONS

University of New Hampshire Guest Lectures Presentations: Solved: Collaborative Research Methods in Forensic Anthropology & Cold Cases History of Transgender and Intersex Individuals Through Time and Space	2018-Present April 2021 August 2020
---	--

Forensic Genealogy	March 2019
Idaho State University Guest Lectures	2020-Present
Presentations:
Clark County John Doe: Putting the Pieces Back Together	December 2020
TRANScending Jane and John Doe: The impact of Gender Identification in Forensic Cold Cases	April 2021
Presentations:
Introducing the Problem: Marginalized Groups and Overrepresentation in Forensic Cases
Transgender, Non-Binary and Intersex Individuals in History and Culture
Introduction to Forensic Genetic Genealogy for Case Resolution
Full Sail Alumni New England Area Mixer	February 2021
Guest moderator for the New England area networking event
University of New Hampshire Gender Identity Awareness Week	September 2020
Presentations:
The Work of the Trans Doe Task Force: Combining Forensic Anthropology and Genetic Genealogy to Solve Cold Cases
History of Transgender and Intersex Individuals Through Time and Space
Trans Doe Task Force Virtual Pride	July 2020
Presentations:
Forensic Genetic Genealogy Q&A
Boston Police Department Sexual Assault Unit	March 2020
Presentations:
Forensic Genealogy for Law Enforcement
Kansas Intelligence Association Conference and Training	October 2019
Presentations:
Forensic Genealogy for Law Enforcement

IDENTIFICATIONS

Preble County "Penny" Jane Doe 1968	January 2021-Present
Portsmouth NH African Burying Ground	February 2020-Present
Alisha Heinrich	February 2020-December 2020
Calvin Dana Hoover, murderer of Christine Jessop	February 2020-October 2020
Larry Joe Porter	June 2019-September 2020
John Doe 1979 Charleston, Missouri (name Withheld)	February 2020-April 2020
Joseph Henry Loveless	May 2019-January 2020
Nathaniel Terrance Deggs	February 2018-December 2019
Pillar Point Doe (name withheld)	January 2019-October 2019
Louise Virginia Flesher	February 2018-August 2019
Philadelphia Jane Doe (name withheld)	December 2018-August 2019
John Clinton Doe (name withheld)	September 2018-February 2019
Alfred Jake Fuller (name withheld)	November 2018-December 2018
Tracey Hobson	August 2018-November 2018
Mary Silvani	May 2018-July 2018
Robert Ivan Nichols	February 2018-June 2018
Lyle Stevik (name withheld)	February 2018-May 2018
Marcia Sossoman King	April 2018

PROJECTS

LAMMP (LGBT+ Accountability for Missing and Murdered Persons) Database	2020-Present
--	--------------

PUBLICATIONS AND PAPERS

Structural Vulnerability in Transgender and Non-Binary Decedent Populations: Analytical Considerations and Harm-Reduction Strategies
American Academy of Forensic Sciences	2021
Loveless Lost: The Case of the Oldest Doe Identified Using Forensic Genetic Genealogy
International Symposium on Human Identification	2020
Instructional Design for Forensic Genealogy
ISHI Report	2020
Collaborative Approaches in the Identification of Transgender and Gender Variant Decedents
American Academy of Forensic Sciences	2020